

Important information – Change of final response date

As of 2020, the final response date will be brought forward to around the 15th of the month after the measurement month.

The data to be submitted is salaries paid out/agreed salary during the measurement month. This can be prepared and submitted immediately after the payroll run that month, or the salary payment that month.

For a long time, Statistics Sweden has been experiencing problems in that submitted data has not referred to the salary payment of the measurement month in some cases, but rather that of the following month. Bringing the final response date forward makes it easier to submit the correct data.

The system suppliers have been informed of this change.

We encourage you to review your procedures so that you report to us as instructed and so that the data can be submitted before the final response date. See the table below.
